On May 23, 2002, McGraw Communications of Virginia, Inc. ("McGraw" or "Applicant"), filed an application for certificates of public convenience and necessity ("certificates") with the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") to provide local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Applicant also requested authority to price its interexchange telecommunications services on a competitive basis pursuant to § 56-481.1 of the Code of Virginia.

In support of its Motion, the Applicant states that it did not receive the June 13, 2002, Order and that it did not, therefore, publish the prescribed notice or make the required filing.¹

NOW UPON CONSIDERATION of the Motion, the Commission is of the opinion and finds that such Motion should be granted and that an order revising the above-referenced procedural schedule should be entered.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

(1) Applicant's Motion requesting a revised procedural Order is hereby granted.

(2) On or before August 23, 2002, the Applicant shall complete publication of the following notice to be published on one (1) occasion as classified advertising in newspapers having general circulation throughout the Applicant's proposed service territory:

¹ That Order directed McGraw to complete publication of the prescribed notice and service of such notice on or before July 1, 2002, and to file proofs of such publication and service on or before July 29, 2002.
